Hi You E,

Thank you again for meeting with me. We are pleased to offer you the Website Development Micro-Intern position with Rural Community Partners.

Job Title: Website Development Micro-Intern

Start Date: 11/26/2025

Hours Per Week: Approximately 10–12 hours per week, not to exceed 20 total hours for the project

Supervisor:

Jody Love, President & CEO

Rural Community Partners

Email: jody@hbcat.org

Phone: 620-215-2892

Description of Duties:

In this role, you will create a refreshed, user-friendly website for Rural Community Partners that helps people understand our work and easily engage with our services. Key responsibilities include:

- Building service sign-up forms for entrepreneurs, community partners, and local organizations to request mentoring, support, or technical assistance
- Creating a secure donation page linked to our existing giving platform
- Developing program pages that clearly describe RCP's core work including entrepreneurship support, feasibility studies, technical assistance, and community development
